When the train came in back in 1910

TEN years ago you might have seen one or two automobiles waiting outside the station, when the weather was pleasant.

Today the square is crowded with them. And most of the cars you generally see there are moderate-price cars.

Anybody who tells you that owners of moderate-price cars are not interested in the quality of their tires has never met very many of them.

We come in contact with the small car owner every day and we have found that he is just as much interested as the big car owner.

There is one tire, at least,
that makes no distinction between small cars and large cars so far as quality is concerned—the U. S. Tire.

Every U. S. Tire is just like every other in quality —the best its builders know how to build.

Whatever the size of your car, the service you get out of U. S. Tires is the same.
It isn't the car, but the man who owns the car, that sets the standard to which U. S. tires are made.

We feel the same way about it. That's why we represent U. S. Tires in this community.

DOORN BECOMING LITTLE POTSDAM

Ex-Kaiser Forms Little Body Guard About Him; Exercises Old Methods.

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
DOORN, Holland, July 28.—The former German emperor William, while professing a desire to lead at Doorn the quiet life of a country gentleman, has nevertheless created a little court around him somewhat larger than that which he had at Amerongen, and Dutch newspapers have already begun calling Doorn "The little Potsdam."

The allies' demands upon Holland to guard the former Emperor closely have made it impossible for William to mingle with the Dutch country gentry who have estates about Doorn, and the house where he is said to expect to spend his remaining days is just like a little bit of Germany.

Strict military order prevails outside the house of Doorn, where passersby must not be too curious. With in the discipline is Prussian. William's only associates are German. His entire staff, including approximately 40 servants, are German, with one exception, the village barber, a Dutchman, who is called in now and then to trim his hair or beard.

When at Amerongen William went frequently to Doorn by automobile, but now he is seldom seen outside the wire fence of his estate, which villagers call his "40 hectare cage." Forty hectares are about 80 acres.

The few times he has been out, he has paid visits to his former host, Count Bentinck, at Amerongen. Now and then the former crown prince or others of William's past have been permitted to visit the exile, largely because of the illness of their mother, but, from day to day, William seldom sees any new faces, only his daily associates.
